—Some of our correspondents are becoming far between.

—Died.—On 1st Thursday, on Bear creek, Mr. Joseph Hudleson.

—Another member added to the family of Chas. Clark—it's a boy.

—We understand Mr. "Dick" Reed intends taking a trip to Arkansas.

—Lead in paying quantities is being unearthed at the mines on the G. & W. S.

—In another column we publish the Pension act, recently passed by Congress.

—Jefferson City has a lady barber, she advertises frosty, and we'll bet she's a good shaver.

—Steamer Aggie passed up yesterday morning. The Aggie is a nicely built—and equipped boat.

—To-morrow will be St. Valentine's Day—get your valentines at Joe Cummings'.

—Prof. Harvey N. will's school commences Monday, March 10th; see advertisement in another column.

—Old man Kimmel of this place is not expected to recover from a fatal fall he received a short time ago.

—The Star says St. Louis is about to be struck with a tempestuous tide of unusual proportions.

—We miss our localities of the surrounding bogs, and ask them to send some of their illuminations.

—That Legislator who wants to reduce printers legal rates had better hold both hands on his scalp.

—Don't say the BAXTER is dull this week, if you think so just call and examine the dryness of our exchanges.

—All staple groceries, star tobacco, cigars, prize candy, under, &c. just opened at Joe Cummings'.

—Thirty-nine laborers were burned under a failing embankment at Kansas City on the 11th inst., nine were killed.

—A select school will be opened at Umpqua Ridge, in school district 1, by Prof. W. M. Lumpkin about the first of April next. The Prof. is a thorough and practical educator and we bespeak a good and interesting school of young gentlemen and ladies for him.

—Steamer Geo. Sprangler arrived at this place Tuesday morning taking a load of wheat, fruit, hides, &c., and returned to Osage City. We were told they had no difficulty in coming up, except at Shiplie's shoal, where they found the water quite scarce.

—Prof. W. M. Lumpkin has been engaged in Probate court affairs this week. We understand the Prof. will be a candidate for re-election to the position of School Commissioner; it is admitted that Prof. Lumpkin has advanced the educational interest of Miller county, plainly observable to every one and beyond the expectation of a great many.

—On Thursday the 8th day of February last, at the residence of Mr. William Padgett at Spring Garden, the ceremonial rite was performed between Mr. John L. Dooley and Miss Maggie A. Padgett, the only daughter, by Edor Edward M. Lumpkin of Cole country.

A large number of neighbors and friends were present to witness the occasion. Soon thereafter the crowd was cordially invited to one of those well supplied tables with everything thereon that heart could wish, where all for a time enjoyed a sumptuous feast; after which, they enjoyed as we are informed, a pleasant evening together, till a late hour, when many of them returned to their homes, thinking no doubt.

—That JOHN and MAGGIE were united with hand and heart their faith was plighted. To be as one the rest of life;

He the husband, she the wife:
She'll keep his mansion, brew his tea,
And every household comfort see,
Supply his every want when sole
And sit as mistress at his table.

Until some far-off future day;
By lapse of time they're swept away.

To go the way that all must tread
To meet their Savior and their God.

The ferry at this place was let to Chas. Clark, the rates of ferrage we give below are for residents of the county, for 5 years from the May term of the County court 1879, at the following rates:

DEAR BANNER:

All is very out here—farming commenced.

E. Q. Bacon has begun the erection of a barn.

Mit Chills nearly ready to sow oats.

We are glad to see boats navigating the lake again, it makes us feel easier financially.

Bro. Agoe and Sears preached two very interesting sermons Sunday at the school house. Bro. Agoe's health is very good.

PETER.

—B. & R. C. COFFEE.

Gentlemen:—As this is my first, you must not look for immunities—or a few facts:

We are all O.K., busily engaged getting out B. & R. Co., but will soon go to farming—proper, devoted and diligent workers. We are improving our farms, notwithstanding we have substance in abundance.

Health to a bridle good—colds excepted.

We have some enterprising farmers up here, among them are Messrs. Geo. W. Anderson, Esq. Brockman, T. Hirshemow, ——, Barnard, P. M. Wilcox, ——, Henderson, M. Colvin, and others, all doing well.

We want a post office established somewhere near our midst.

We like the change you have made.

With prosperity and happiness to you we conclude. Yours, &c.,

EX.

—Debate.

DEAR BANNER:

This is to inform you and all whom it may concern that Elders, Wm. G. Downing and G. L. Tomson will debate the following propositions on the 7th and 8th of March, 1879:

I solved, that the

SCRIPTURE TEACH

that the saints will persevere through Christ to glory, and that none that have been made new creatures in Christ will ever fall away and be lost.

Downing affirms,

Tomson denies,

Resolved that the

SCRIPTURE TEACH

that the saints will persevere through Christ to glory, and that none that have been made new creatures in Christ will ever fall away and be lost.

All that are interested are solicited to be present.

Debate will take place at the school house in district No. 6, townships 41 and 42, range 15, near Peter Foompan's five miles south of M. Pleasant.

W. H. D. WENING.
